

A great Clyde Sea Lochs Trail day out!

The Clyde SeaLochs Trail leads you on a fascinating 65 mile journey of discovery around the northern shores of the Firth of Clyde and its beautiful sea lochs.

Castles, gardens, history, wildlife, seashore and woodland walks, coastal and mountain scenery, a Geocache trail, must see buildings and great places to eat – the Clyde Sea Lochs Trail has it all!

Use the map to see all the route possibilities and information panel locations, most of which have nearby carparks and offer picnic spots with views. There is also a geocache trail directly linked to the route as an added attraction. Journeys to specific parts of the route can also be made by public transport. The trail is well signposted – just look out for the Clyde Sea Lochs Trail logo!
